

Cub Scout Pack 883 Recruiting Contest

Do You Know a Future Cub Scout?

Here's How It Works

- During the recruiting period (from June through December), have your son invite his friends (brothers count too!) to join Pack 883.
 - Make sure your son's name is listed as the "recruiter" on the new Scout's application
 - The Cub Scout must join by the December Pack meeting to be included in the contest.
- If your son recruits a new Cub Scout during the time of the contest, he will:
 - Receive a recruiter patch for his uniform
 - Get to throw a pie into the face of the Cubmaster at the December Pack Meeting
 - Have a chance to win a $10 gift certificate to Wal-Mart in a drawing at each Pack Meeting between September and December
 - Each recruiter gets one entry for each new Cub Scout he recruits, so the more Cub Scouts he recruits, the greater his odds will be of winning
- At the December meeting, we will draw for the Grand Prize (a $50 Wal Mart gift card)
 - Each recruiter gets one entry for each new Cub Scout he recruits, so the more Cub Scouts he recruits, the greater his odds will be of winning
 - Even if your son wins a $10 Wal-Mart gift certificate at one of the other drawings, he will still be eligible for the Grand Prize Drawing
